

Gilberto Ceresa

Mr. Ceresa was born in Asti (Italy) on 16 July 1965 and is a graduate in Electronic Engineering from Turin Polytechnic.

In 1989, he joined Fiat Group where he held roles of increasing responsibility in Information Technology at Fiat Auto.

In particular, he was responsible for IT at the plant in Termoli and was later appointed head of IT for international activities in Eastern Europe, Turkey, South America, Asia and Africa.

From 2000, Mr. Ceresa worked on the integration with GM and then, as part of Product Development, he managed implementation of the new Product Data Management system at Fiat Auto.

Since 2004, he has served as Executive Coordinator for the Group Executive Council and the management team at Fiat Group Automobiles in support of the CEO.

Since 2007, Mr. Ceresa has held additional roles as head of Information Technology for FGA and IT Coordinator for Fiat Group.