

Camillo Rossotto

Camillo Rossotto was born in Turin in 1962.

He graduated in Political Science and also holds an MBA from New York University.

Mr. Rossotto joined the Fiat Group in 1989 and covered roles of increasing responsibility in the Finance area, first in Italy and then in the US, Germany and Brazil.

In 2000, after a brief period as Group Treasurer of Barilla, he returned to Fiat as Treasurer of Fiat Auto.

In 2005, he was appointed Treasurer of CNH in the US and in 2007 he also became CFO of CNH Capital. In 2008 Mr. Rossotto returned to Europe where he was appointed Head of CNH Capital Europe.

In March 2010, after a brief period as CEO of FGA Capital, the joint venture between Fiat Group and Crédit Agricole, he was appointed Treasurer of Fiat Group.