

Statement from the Chairman of Fiat, John Elkann, on implementation of the agreement for Pomigliano d'Arco

The decision to proceed with the planned investments is an important sign of confidence. It demonstrates our belief in Italy and our intention to do our part in full.

Much is changing around us and today can represent the beginning of a completely new era: success will depend on how each of us embraces this change.

Turin, 9 July 2010